

Rising Stars

Joel Gutierrez — Joel is one of the most talkative people in the company and his telephone calls are never short. This is because of his great enthusiasm and the abundance of new ideas that come to him every day. Since taking the leadership role at CWI he has proven his commitment to deliver quality merchandise to our buyers and constantly pursue new avenues of supply and revenue. His style of management is characterized by respect for fellow employees, a pleasant manner and a thirst for knowledge. Joel is a driven individual who has set lofty goals for himself and the division he represents.